

Yesssss!

Turn to professionals who understand your insureds and your business.

Program Development Expertise

Blue River Underwriters delivers program development expertise to industry professionals looking to expand their books of business in specialty markets. Our deep knowledge of all aspects of program process automation and operations can help to free up your time to focus on maximizing growth opportunities. As part of Breckenridge Insurance Group, we bring more than 100 international carrier relationships to bear, a breadth of internal resources and a national footprint to benefit you.

Healthy Appetite

At Blue River Underwriters, we look to build best-in-class programs across established and emerging industries. If an underserved or challenged industry, we assess how we might solve the need creatively to drive success. As much as we get excited about launching novel programs, we're also looking for homogeneous books of accounts in a specialty market that are prime candidates for geographic and/or coverage expansion. Having a sound base of profitable business and a well-managed loss history is critical if a rollover book or acquisition.

Good People

We pride ourselves on collaborative and open communication and a focus on teamwork. We look for strong program administration leadership, passionate teams, and open-minded people. We expect that our professionals know the insurance space the insureds business, and have strong relationships with the agents they serve. We look to invest in diverse talent and develop the future leaders in our industry.

Partnership Approach

With our unparalleled executive leadership and proven program expertise, we inform the best approach to your program growth. Our financial stability, reporting capabilities, nimble approach, and continued investment in team, technology and marketing additionally benefit you. Let our national distribution network of entrepreneurial Breckenridge brokers and allies help promote your new or existing program to differentiate and strengthen their established agent relationships.

Let Blue River Underwriters help you succeed in the program business space.
